23a	If Yes, Please give your new partner's name, and say whether you are living together
24	If your Husband / Wife in a new relationship?	Yes / No
24a	If yes, please give their new partner's name (if you know it) and say whether they are living together.

25	What would you say was the main reason that the marriage or partnership has broken down?
26a	Adultery –: When and how did you learn that they had committed adultery?
26b	Unreasonable Behaviour – Give brief details of what your spouse did, to make you feel that you can no longer stay married to them. It is best to give the most recent examples, where possible.
26c	Separation: What is the date on which you separated?
	Does your spouse agree to a divorce?
	What addresses have you each lived at since the separation?

I confirm that the information given in this form is correct. I wish to instruct FDC Law to deal with my divorce on a fixed fee basis and accept the terms and conditions of the fixed fee scheme.

Checklist:

If you have not already given us these, you will need to provide us with the following before we can prepare your divorce:

Item	Enclosed	To Follow
Original Marriage Certificate (Or official certified copy from the Register Office or Church where you were married – Photocopies are not accepted by the court)
Initial payment of £300
Proof of ID
Proof of Address
Signed Terms of Business

Our charge for the fixed fee divorce will be £500* + VAT of £100. The Court charges £550 to issue your petition, and you will have to pay this, unless you qualify for fee-exemption. Further terms and conditions apply which are set out in full in our client care letter.

*Please check the fixed-fee divorce leaflet for details of what is included in the fixed fee. Figures correct as at March 2016 but subject to change.
